LGBTQA+ History Month is observed annually in October to recognize and celebrate the achievements and contributions of the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer/Questioning, Asexual community and those who support, nurture, and advocate for us. This year we will be celebrating LGBTQA+ Voices for Equality in Nebraska.

UNL has a history of advocacy for LGBTQA+ issues going back to 1970, when Lou Crompton organized an interdisciplinary course in Gay Studies, the second of its kind in an American university. See more of our historical highlights at involved.unl.edu/unl-lgbtqa-history

Didn’t see what you consider to be an important part of UNL’s LGBTQA+ history? Let our director, Pat Tetreault, know at ptetreault1@unl.edu.

OutSpeaking is the LGBTQ+ Speakers Bureau sponsored by the LGBTQ+ Resource Center and PFLAG Lincoln with the mission of increasing awareness and understanding of the LGBTQ+ community and LGBTQ+ issues by providing the UNL and Lincoln communities with educational workshops and panels.

Interested in being an OutSpeaker? Come to the OutSpeaking Orientation on October 8th, at 7 PM in room 212 of the Nebraska Union!

Want to request a panel? Check out our page at involved.unl.edu/outspeaking for more info.

Interested in the Creating Change or MBLGTACC conferences?

Creating Change 2016 is a political, leadership and skill-building conference for the LGBTQ+ social justice movement, taking place in Chicago, January 20th - 24th.

MBLGTACC 2016, the largest student-led LGBTQ+ college conference in the nation, will be hosted by Purdue University in West Lafayette, Indiana, February 19th - 21st.

If you are interested in either or both and want to participate in our fundraising efforts to go, or would like more info, contact Stephanie at lgbtqa.ga@unl.edu for Creating Change or JD at lgbtqa.outspeaking@unl.edu for MBLGTACC.

Social Justice: Living Activism

Spend an evening with experienced activists from a variety of movements, learning the skills essential to create the social justice you value. Enjoy dinner, small group discussions and inspiring brief presentations.

October 28th at the Sheldon Museum of Art, 5:30 - 8:30 PM

Free event admission, registration required.
Contact lmajor1@unl.edu for more information.
