Say Hello to Our Staff!

Stephanie Blair - Graduate Assistant

Stephanie is a first year graduate student in the Educational Administration program for Student Affairs. She looks forward to stepping up her involvement in the LGBTQ+ community, and getting to know each of you!

JD McCown - Outspeaking Coordinator

JD is a junior Psychology and Women's and Gender Studies major. She is excited to help continue the sense of community between students and organizations.

Eliott Hines - Fall Intern

Eliott is a senior Women's and Gender Studies major. He is looking forward to interning for the center because he wants to be more involved in the community and provide support to the center staff. His second major is Film Studies, and if he's not studying, he's watching movies.

BIG RED WELCOME 2015
Reserve your seats now for

UNL’s 13th Annual LGBTQ+ History Month Dinner!

This year’s dinner will take place at The Cornhusker Hotel in the Grand Ballroom on Tuesday, October 13th. State Senator Adam Morfeld will provide our keynote. We will be awarding the 3rd annual “be-ing the change” award to Chancellor Perlman!

Want to reserve or donate seating for the dinner? Go to involved-apps.unl.edu/a/HistoryMonth/ and fill out the form by September 15th! There is an additional form available to reserve advertising space in our program. Raffle donations are also accepted.

LGBTQA+ Voices for Equality in Nebraska Nominations!

To help recognize those who engage in ally behaviors and advocacy on behalf of the LGBTQ+ community, our friends, families and supporters, consider nominating an individual who has been a voice for LGBTQ+ equality at UNL, in Lincoln, and for Nebraska. We will honor those nominated by including them in an online display and at the annual history month dinner. We will provide a complimentary dinner ticket to all nominees.

To nominate an individual as a Voice for LGBTQ+ Equality in NE, go to involved-apps.unl.edu/a/voicesofequality/ and fill out the form provided.
Happy 20th anniversary for safe space and ally cards!

A brief timeline of the history behind Safe Space/Ally cards here at UNL

1995: Safe Space/Ally Cards are designed for distribution at UNL by Pat Tetreault and John Whiteman. The cards were distributed by the Gay Lesbian Student Association on National Coming Out Day.

2005: A week of programming takes place to honor their 10th anniversary, including the display of a “giant” Safe Space/Ally card that individuals could sign.

2008: The cards are updated to reflect a social justice approach and to clarify the distinction between safe space provision and being an ally, resulting in two separate cards.

Following their gay son’s suicide and unexpectedly meeting his partner, a Mormon couple must reconcile their faith and feelings in order to face the truth.

Spectrum UNL is a student organization geared towards all LGBTQA+ students and allies.

We engage our members in exciting activities, outings, events, and interactive educational opportunities. We also provide members with resources, support, friends, and act as a social outlet for LGBTQA+ students on campus.

Be sure to check us out for our weekly gatherings at the Union in room 234 on Thursdays at 5 PM, followed by our weekly meetings at 6 PM.

For your discretion, we maintain a no-outing policy for all members.
